The services of Mr. A. Sampathkumarachar were also utilised to teach English and literature to those who appeared for the Vidwat Examinations from that College. without any extra cost. After he left that place, another graduate, Mr. A. N. His continuance is being sanctioned, year after year, by this office, on the recommendation of the Advisory Committee, as Literature is made compulsoryfor the Sanskrit Vidwat Examinations.

The Advisory Committee of the College recommend that the post of the Literature Teacher may be made permanent, as his services are necessary. The post is not included in the sanctioned establishment of the College; but, is being continued tentatively, from 1931.

In the circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may be, kindly, obtained to continue the post of the Literature Teacher, on a permanent basis, as in respect of the other posts of the College.
